Surprise Shower Given Miss Crosby

Miss Dorothy Blake Crosby of 200 Mystic street, whose engagement to Mr. David Marston, of West Medford has been announced, was given a surprise shower on Monday evening, April 25, by the Misses Olive Edmonds, Helen Shaw and Edith Cutter at the home of Miss Edmonds at Arlington Heights.

The decorations were very appropriately carried out with hearts and cupid, and crepe paper streamers in rainbow colorings. A huge basket was set in the center of the table, surrounded by a shower of streamers, in which the many lovely gifts received by Miss Crosby were held. During the evening, musical selections were given by the Misses Christine Vallender and Molly Alford, pianists, Miss Crosby, vocalist, and an exhibition Charleston by Miss Edmonds, while general dancing was enjoyed by all. Near the close of the evening, dainty refreshments were served.

Guests from Winchester, Medford, Belmont, Jamaica Plain and Arlington attended.

"THE COPPERHEAD"

Arlington Friends of The Drama
Present War Play.

On Thursday and Friday evenings of last week there was given in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, the four-act play, "The Copperhead," written by Augustus Thomas, by the Friends of the Drama. The play is not antebellum, but is a story of the Civil War, and is a story of the Civil War, and is a story of the Civil War. The play is not antebellum, but is a story of the Civil War, and is a story of the Civil War. The play is not antebellum, but is a story of the Civil War, and is a story of the Civil War.

The Arlington Historical Society and the Men's club of the First Universalist church assisted in disposing of the tickets, each sharing in the receipts of the performances in proportion to the number of tickets disposed of by them. This, with the members of the club and its associate members, gave a wide publicity to the performance that should have packed the hall both nights. Each, however, had a most appreciative one and well it might have been, for the cast gave a most creditable presentation, especially the leading parts.

Arlington Rotary Club Elects Officers

At the meeting on Wednesday, the report of the committee to nominate officers for the ensuing year was presented and accepted, after which, by unanimous vote, secretary Stevens cast one ballot bearing the names presented and they were declared elected as follows:—President, Harry P. Hopkins; vice-president, Frank A. Woodhead; secretary, Charles H. Stevens; treasurer, Edward C. Hildreth; directors, Charles H. Higgins, Brade L. Lawley, Freeman N. Young, Ernest A. Snow was chosen the delegate to the International convention to be held at Denver, Colo. The present board will hold office until July 1.

The club appropriated $30 to be added to the Symmes Hospital drive and $50 to the District Nursing Association fund now being raised to aid in their benevolence.

The committee arranging for the inter-club meeting last week and that planning for the recent show, also Daniel W. Tierney, who superintended the parking last week, were each given a vote of thanks.

The president will at an early date appoint a committee of three members of the club to supervise the building of the Boy Scout camp at Bedford already provided for.

SYMMES ARLINGTON HOSPITAL
Gets $69,483.83

The campaign to raise money for the enlargement of Symmes Arlington Hospital will close this (Friday) evening. Our report of the financial result of necessity closed with last evening, when the amount secured and pledged totaled $69,483.83 from these subscribers. How largely that amount will be increased in the closing hours devoted to soliciting by the captains and teams serving under them, remains to be seen.

The amount thus far secured, is not greatly over one-third the sum required to fully carry out the plans of the officers of the hospital, but we think the institution will ultimately be greatly benefited in other ways, for it has been a campaign of education as well as solicitation, and an institution so sound financially, and so up to date in all matters pertaining to hospitals, can receive good only when its affairs are discussed in a friendly way. By this means the best is brought to view.

As we understand the situation, the amount already secured will build one of the proposed new wings and we are quite sure Arlington people will provide for meeting future demands, at least those that seem at the time to be imperative.

The several teams have gathered in Old Town Hall each evening prior to going to their several districts, and interesting speakers have been there on each occasion with some useful message of inspiration or helpfulness.

Reception To New Minister

Rev. Charles T. Allen and Wife Given a Reception at Calvary Methodist Church.

Rev. Charles Thompson Allen, who has come from Norwood Methodist church to take charge of the Calvary Methodist church, was, with his wife, tendered a reception on Wednesday evening in the social room of the church, which had been decorated by the Paquinox club. Ministers of the other churches in Arlington were invited to be present, and during the evening Rev. James E. Norcross, of Trinity Baptist church, welcomed Mr. Allen to the town in behalf of the Minister's Association of the town. The greeting of the church to the new pastor was made by Mr. A. H. Morris.

Mrs. Henry E. Gamster, as president of the Ladies Aid, received with Rev. and Mrs. Allen, together with Mr. E. E. Munroe, an officer. During the reception, piano selections were rendered by Mr. Eugene Gifford of Chelsea, and vocal solos by Mrs. May Tracy. The ushers were Messrs. Hyson, Morris, Wardman, Hackett, Harold Hannan, Arthur Gaskill, Earl Barrows, Carl S. Nelson, Frank Hughes and E. R. Tolman.

Refreshments were served by the Paquinox club, of which Miss Teresa Springer is the president. The committee in charge was Mrs. L. B. Currier, chairman; Mrs. Fred Robinson, Mrs. Edna Warren, Mrs. Fred Drew and Mrs. Ethel Kenney. Mrs. Allen was presented with flowers.

Mr. Allen has a pleasing personality, that is bound to make his work, thus far so splendidly discharged, a success. This is his fourth parish. He has been associate pastor at the Wesley church in South Boston. Mr. Allen has been married three years, but there are no children.

JUNIORS WIN INTER-CLASS TRACK MEET

The Junior class won the annual class track championship last Friday at Spy Pond Field. The time made by some of the winners indicate Arlington High will be represented by a team that will keep Arlington again in the lead. The meet was a handicap one and some of the new boys showed very good promise.

Capt. Ross Eldridge ran a very fast mile. Jas. Kelly won the half in good time. Canny came then with a 500, and Harry Revel jumped very well in the running broad jump. Leonard Wood shows much promise in the quarter mile. New men to show well were Chas. Evans, Dick Carroll, Summers, Collier, Bacon, Pecon and Gaskill. The quarter was the closest race ever run at Arlington as only about 3 ft. separated the first three runners. The senior relay team made up of Lawson, Everett, Concoran and Capt. Eldridge won the relay championship.

Coach Dr. W. T. McCarty says Arlington will have a team that should hold up the record of the previous teams.

Better Homes Day

Arlington Home Makers Exhibit Under Direction of Mrs. Bert S. Currier.

Mrs. Bert S. Currier was chairman of a committee that arranged and carried out one of the most interesting exhibits that has ever been assembled in Robbins Memorial Town Hall. It was arranged in observance of "better homes day," when Arlington home makers were invited to a conference and demonstration. The program was opened by Mrs. Currier, who explained the object of the conference of which she had been so successful in arranging through the cooperation of all to whom she appealed to help carry out the program of the day, which was as follows:—

"Sing—America the Beautiful." Address by Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, President of Arlington Women's Club. Introduction of evening speaker, Miss E. Evelyn Hedges, Middlesex of Home Economics Society, subject, "Kitchen Improvement," followed by demonstration. Singing: Talk on the Revival of the Hooked Rug, Mrs. George Albion Clark. Address by Mrs. L. B. Currier, "The Public School and the Home," by Arthur L. Robinson, head of Mechanical Arts Dept. High School; "How to Finance the Buying of a Home," Elbert L. Churchill, Arlington Cooperative Bank; Better Babies, Mrs. Roger Homer, president, Arlington Visiting Nurse Association; Demonstration, With Baby Cline; Girl Scout Works; First Aid Demonstration; Folk Dancing by Girl Scouts; Adjournment.

This program was all interesting, but it was the exhibit about the hall that held the attention. In front of the stage was grouped palms, ferns and flowering plants that lent a charm to the splendid exhibit of hooked rugs displayed on the stage made by the Hooked Rug Club. There was also an exhibit of three lovely Paisley and white China silk embroidered shawls, besides patch work quilts and other old-fashioned articles. Mrs. Frank H. Garrett and Mrs. Harold Stratton gave a demonstration of the hooking during the afternoon.

There was the up-to-date kitchen, the articles having been loaned by the R. W. Shattuck & Co. Then there was an exhibit by the Arlington Gas Light Company and another by Gahm & Erickson, and still another by the Edison Electric Illuminating Company, all of which demonstrated economy in time and labor for the housekeeper.

The exhibit by the Arlington Visiting Nurse Association, with its Well Baby Clinic, several mothers and babies being there, as well as the nurses and the president, Mrs. Roger W. Homer, was interesting, and the Girl Scouts in one corner where they sold their cookies and hoarhound candy, made its appeal as did the table of books loaned from the Robbins library, but after all, it was the wonderful exhibit by pupils in our school that secured the greatest amount of attention. It was not only a credit to the pupils, but the teachers under whose direction the work was done. If any one had doubts as to the advisability of conducting these manual arts departments in our schools, an inspection of the work would have convinced them, for some of it would have done credit to any dressmaker, cooking teacher or cabinet maker of experience.

The committee assisting in the arrangement was as follows:—Mrs. Currier, Mrs. Joseph W. Downes, Mrs. Oscar A. Schmetzer, Mrs. Leslie D. Cotton (Gleason), Mrs. Alfred Patterson, Miss Grace Parker, Mrs. G. B. C. Rugg, Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, Mrs. William G. Brooks, Mrs. George A. Clark, Mrs. William A. Muller, Mrs. Arthur A. Lawson, Miss Harriet Penney, Arthur Robinson, Mrs. P. S. Baker, R. Walter Hillard and Harry Hopkins, these latter two representing the Board of Trade and Rotary Club of the town. The affair was financed by the Women's clubs of the town. The hall was loaned by the Selectmen for the exhibit.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

The Girl Scout Council met at the home of Mrs. James A. Bailey on Monday afternoon. It was announced that the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Girl Scouts, Inc., will be held at 10.30 a. m., May 5, at 35 Newbury street.

An all day session will be held May 6, at Cedar Hill at which the International Delegates will be guests. The State Review will be held at the Arena, May 8, and Arlington troops will participate, and also the Drum and Bugle Corps.

Plans are being made for a Rally on May 21, to which parents of Scouts will be invited and several merit badges will be awarded.

The next meeting of the Council will probably be held at Arlington's Camp, at Cedar Hill.

Business Of The Annual Town Meeting Finally Disposed Of $351,722.25 Appropriated To Defray Expenses.

Monday evening, April 26th, was concluded the business contained in the warrant of the annual March Town Meeting after three adjournments, seventy-one articles having been disposed of, besides eight articles in a special warrant.

There were present, 168 Town Meeting Members, out of the total membership of 261. Many of the members were giving their services for the Symmes Hospital campaign.

It was 10.40 before the vote to adjourn came, most of the evening having been given to the voting away the town's money for salaries and expenses, and considering the amendments to the Building By-laws affecting section 8, regarding tenement houses; section 13, walls and buildings; and section 16, floor loads. By the passing of these amendments it will be possible to build a certain class of apartment houses that no doubt will be an asset to the town.

In the recommendations by the Finance Committee made in a printed report, there were many that called for a larger expenditure than last year. This brought out discussion after questions had been asked as to why the increase. An interesting thing was noted in regard to this that was that many of the members did not seem to be familiar with the situations that had governed the Finance Committee in their recommendations which would seem to reflect a bit on the members in not acquainting themselves with these important matters. That at least one Town Meeting precinct chairman, Frederick C. Horter of precinct 6, is alive to the interests of his precinct, was vouched for by one of the members of the same.

Another interesting incident of the meeting was when an effort was made to attach a salary of $100 to the position of Moderator, championed by Earl A. Ryder and Jacob Bitzer. John G. Brackett, who has so ably filled that position for several years, being elected by the town people to the office, made it very apparent that he would not accept the money if voted, but regardless of this, such a vote was passed but was rescinded when Mr. Brackett made the meeting more fully realize his feeling regarding the accepting of money for his services. The Town Meeting members gave Mr. Brackett a ringing vote for his magnanimous attitude.

Most of the recommendations for appropriations went through without a dissenting voice, but when $11,635.70 was asked for in the Wire department for "additional Fire and Police Signal System," the question was raised as to why the increase over last year, when the sum asked for was but $1,845.00. Mr. G. Bertram Washburn, a member of the Finance Committee, was able to explain why, which is because most of the money is required to be spent for material to tie up the fire alarm system with the city of Cambridge and town of Winchester. Arlington is already tied up with Belmont, Lexington, Somerville and Medford, thus giving all these towns and cities better fire protection.

Mr. J. Wm. Fellows, as chairman of the Finance Committee, had an ar-

18th AMENDMENT HEARING

The hearing on bills now before Congress calling for repeal or modification of laws now in force intended to procure enforcement of the 18th Amendment, closed last week. A careful study of what transpired at this hearing convinces us that a single object was the aim of those requesting it, namely: the securing of material for use in the Congressional campaign of 1926. As now made up, the present Congress has a working majority in favor of the amendment and laws enacted to make it effective in both branches. This fall a concerted effort, backed by unlimited means, will be made to reverse this condition by electing what are now generally spoken of as "wets."

There is one chance, and one chance only, that this plan can be accomplished—the failure to vote on the part of those who if they went to the polls on election day would cast a ballot for the candidate who if elected would sustain and if possible strengthen the present restrictive laws relating to intoxicating liquors, so again we bring this matter home to the consciences of our readers.

With care and deep interest we followed proceedings before the committee appointed to give a hearing on bills now pending in Congress, and as far as we could discover, there was not one reason for a change introduced nor argument offered that had not been met and refuted time and again in the fifty years since the revival of interest in the temperance cause that followed the moral slump during the Civil War period and eventuated in making the country no license under prohibition or local option laws. The comment of Wayne B. Wheeler on the matter presented by the wets in the recent hearing fits the case exactly—"a conglomerate of heterogeneous, incoherent inconsistencies."

The principal stress was laid on failure of enforcement and lowering of moral standards through a widespread disregard of law; the loss to the government in tax revenues; vast sums of money going out of the country for intoxicants that formerly was paid for a home product. This latter item was figured as something over two billion dollars. Giving credit for the full amount, this sum spent for liquor smuggled into the United States is two billion dollars less than was spent annually in this country prior to the passage of the 18th Amendment.

And following this item of credit to the saving quality of the Volstead Act, there are other items. "There is not a large industry of any sort or kind in the United States that has not been greatly benefited by increased efficiency and time-saving by workmen; there is not a savings bank that has not had its deposits mount up sharply; there are thousands on thousands of dwellings that have become real 'homes' because the wages of the wage earner have been put to a legitimate use; there is a dearth of scrub women in every large city because the mother no longer is obliged to be an earner of money to provide needed food for the family."

All this is because there is no longer a saloon or bar-room where liquor is sold legally. To exempt what are termed by the wets, light drinks, would revive both the bar-room and the saloon. It is because of this fact that the vast liquor interests are moving heaven and earth to open this door.

For centuries, intoxicating liquors had undisputed sway. The beginnings of national enforcement were in 1920, a little more than five years ago. The law expressed, by a majority verdict, the nation's conviction in regard to the traffic, first by acts of Congress and later by endorsement by a majority of the States of the Union. Is the law not entitled to a fair trial as President Coolidge said not long ago? "The law represents the voice of the people. Beyond it, and supporting it, is a divine sanction. Enforcement of law and obedience to law by the very nature of our institutions are not matters of choice in this republic, but the expression of a moral requirement of living in accordance with the truth. They are clothed with a spiritual significance, in which is revealed the life or the death of the American ideal of self-government."

FREDERICK W. DALLINGER
ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

FOR CONGRESS

A short time ago we intimated that Hon. Frederick W. Dallinger of Cambridge was likely to contest for the Republican nomination in the Eighth Congressional District to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Harry I. Thayer, last Monday Mr. Dallinger issued a formal statement, in which he said:—

"After carefully weighing numerous requests which have come to me, I have decided to be a candidate for Congress from the 8th district to fill the vacancy caused by the untimely death of my friend Harry Thayer. If nominated and elected, as a Republican and a supporter of President Coolidge, I shall continue to render the best possible service in my power to the Nation, the State, and to all the people of the district which has so signally honored me in the past."

Prior to the election last year, Mr. Dallinger had served the district for ten years with success on his part and satisfaction to his constituency to a degree not realized during the preceding two decades. He proved to be a really representative man of such recognized ability by his associates in the House of Representatives that positions on important committees were assigned him and secured for him a respectful attention whenever he had occasion to discuss items of business pending.

The Republicans of this district will make no mistake if they nominate Mr. Dallinger, a man in every way fitted for the position and one with previous experience, the value of which to the district it would be difficult to overestimate.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of Arlington Board of Trade will be held at G. A. R. Hall on the evening of Tuesday, May 4, with supper served at 6.30, social hour to follow, with business meeting called to order at 8 o'clock.

The speaker of the evening is Mr. Charles W. Elliot, 2nd, the expert employed by the Town Planning Board to assist them in their task and who prepared the plans that are a most important part of the report in pamphlet form recently distributed. Mr. Elliot will explain the plans and will have some twenty slides to aid him in conveying to members what his ideals are and what Arlington should endeavor to do in the early future to beautify the town and better handle traffic conditions which are beginning to crowd her thoroughfares and endanger life.

Routine business, reports of committees, election of new members and other items will be disposed of prior to the address.

ARLINGTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Ladies of Universalist Church Entertain Members With Dramatic Performance.

Members of the Arlington Historical Society and friends were given a most enjoyable evening on Monday, April 26th, in the vestry of the First Parish Unitarian church, when ladies from the First Universalist church, who gave so acceptably a few weeks ago, Zona Gale's "Neighbors," repeated the performance at this time.

The cast, with one or two exceptions, was the same as at the previous performance, and each were showered with compliments at the close of the evening's entertainment; for the pleasure they had given the audience by their presentation of this homely, but interesting play that depicts the life in a country village, where everyone knows their neighbor and is interested in what interests them. The play was splendidly cast. The work of Miss Edith Winn and that of Mrs. Clara Kimball stood out as especially fine, also that of Mr. Powers, but each assisted in carrying out the author's conception in an unusually realistic degree. Music was furnished by a trio made up of the piano, saxophone and drum, played by George Winn, Richard Lombard and Paul Withers. At the conclusion of the play, ice cream and cake was served, under the direction of Mrs. George A. Winn.

The cast of the play follows:—Grandma, Mrs. Clara Kimball; Miss Diantha Able, Miss Edith Winn; Mrs. Ruth Harwood; Miss Morton, Mrs. Mabel Horner; Miss Frot, Miss Elizabeth Yerrinton; Miss Elsworth, Mrs. Grace Tuttle; Ezra Williams, Wallace Powers; Peter, Joseph McCann.

The annual meeting of the society occurs Monday evening, May 2nd, in the Jason Russell House.

IN 1876

Fifty Years Ago This Week

There were so few citizens present at the opening of the Town meeting last Thursday afternoon, some thought the meeting should be adjourned and a motion to that effect was made but lost. Henry J. Wells, Esq., was chosen moderator, but declining to serve, John H. Hardy, Esq., was elected. By 5 o'clock the hall was pretty well filled and the business progressed quite rapidly. The meeting adjourned at 7 o'clock to Monday evening at 7 o'clock. Articles 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 were disposed of.

We are very much gratified to see so large an attendance of parents and friends of the scholars in our public schools at the exhibition given by the lower classes in Russell school last Tuesday afternoon. The large hall was well filled. The exercises consisted of singing, recitations, declamations, etc., and lasted one hour, from 2 to 4 o'clock p. m., the scholars and each of the several teachers alternating, and we question if the more pretentious affair of the 28th inst., when the advanced classes will display their talent, will furnish as pleasant and enjoyable a program.

The Town voted to "indefinitely postpone article nine of the warrant." After the meeting a subscription was quietly started and Friday morning, R. L. Hodgdon, M. D., the principal mover in this project, handed the president of the Arlington Reform Club a receipted bill for the amount of the Town's charges against the club for the use of the Town Hall.

IN 1901

Twenty-five Years Ago This Week

Arlington Boat Club was represented at Amateur League banquet at the Exchange Club Monday evening by President Chas. B. Devereaux, Mr. Chas. H. Carter and Mr. George B. C. Rugg.

Monday brought out the open cars and cycles in great force, besides other spring things which had impatiently been waiting the breath of spring.

Work on the new car house is progressing but it did seem as if it might be many weeks before the building could be completed. The water pipes have been laid during the week.

The annual meeting of the Sunshine Club was held at Mrs. Edward Downing's, the vice-president in the chair. In the absence of the secretary, the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read by Mrs. Parsons. Reports of the treasurer showed the club in good financial condition. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: president, Mrs. T. A. Jernagan; vice-president, Miss Susie Haskell; recording secretary, Mrs. Whitaker; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. T. White; treasurer, Mrs. C. T. Parsons; visiting committee, Miss Edith Kendall; Miss Alice White and Mrs. Edward Downing; admission committee, Mrs. J. H. Perry and Mrs. Taylor.

The M. M. M. Club met with Miss Edith Kendall Thursday afternoon.

The Hilliards arrived home from their California trip the middle of the week.

When we were to have another historic touch here by the changing of Vine street to Paul Revere road. The name should belong to it. Where are the D. A. R. members that they miss this chance to do a fine thing for the town of Arlington?

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. T. Ralph Parris left on Friday for a fishing trip "way down in Maine," where they will be guests at a private fishing lodge.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Foreign and Home Mission Society of the Baptist church will be held at the residence of Mrs. E. B. Upham, Avon place, on Wednesday May 5th, at 4 o'clock. There will be an address by Miss Newcombe.

The Town Hall was damaged by fire. Mr. Hoober of the police department was in the building at the time, and discovered it. The firemen put forth their best efforts and averted what might have been a serious catastrophe to this fine building.

CHIEF THOMAS O. D. URQUHART
ENTERTAINS VETERANS OF
14th MASS. LIGHT BATTERY

The remaining members of the old 14th Mass. Light Battery that served during the Civil War are about the only organization that keeps up its reunions. Of late years these have been held at the home of Chief of Police, Thomas O. D. Urquhart, whose father was a member of the battery and who, with his wife, have extended this courtesy to the veterans, who have enjoyed the reunion at the picturesque home of the Chief at the top of Arlington Heights on Pine Ridge road.

The reunion was held on Monday, the 19th, when there were present only four members of the old battery, four others being unable to be present. Those attending were Eugene D. Sanborn, of West Roxbury; Wallace Kennedy, of Dorchester; William Ricker, of Worcester, and George Dupee, of Norfolk. With these comrades were Commander Charles S. Parker, of Post 36, of this town, and editor of the Advocate, Charles A. Montgomery, a son of Thomas Montgomery, who is a member of the old battery, but unable to attend; William W. Ricker, son of William Ricker of the battery; Lieut. George Kenney, of Everett, a nephew of Comrade Kenney; Mrs. Sanborn, wife of Comrade Sanborn, and Miss Thompson, niece of Comrade Dupee.

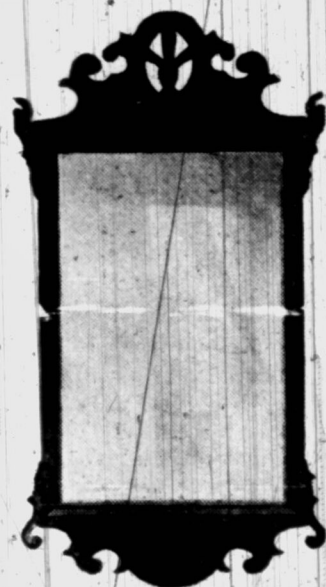

A bountiful repast was served by Chief and Mrs. Urquhart.

ROTARY INTER-CLUB MEETING

One of the largest of the inter-club meetings, that are a feature of International Rotarians, ever held in this district, came at the noon meeting of Arlington Rotary Club on Wednesday, April 21. Nine of the clubs in the 31st District accepted the invitation to be present, making a company of considerably over three hundred to be seated at tables spread in the main hall of Middlesex Sportsman's Association, namely: Woburn, Wakefield, Waltham, Cambridge, Medford, Stoneham, Watertown, Somerville, Reading. One-minute talks from the nine presidents were gems of the after dinner speech variety. District Deputy elect, Wm. Davis, of Cambridge, was equally happy in his response when introduced.

In a nicely worded "welcome," President Higgins, of Arlington Rotary, introduced the special guest, Governor General of the 31st District, Harry Williams, whose address was calculated to be an inspiration to all.

The exercises were interspersed with Rotary songs, and Bertram E. Cass gave a fine rendering of Old Black Joe, the Rotarians joining in singing the chorus. The visitors showered compliments on the officers of Arlington club on the completeness of the provisions for their comfort and enjoyment.

Arthur A. Landers, was cast for Milt Shanks, the Copperhead. This was his first appearance, and in his hands the character was made so realistic that it gripped the hearts of his audience and held their attention as he portrayed the misunderstood man, who takes the abuses of his neighbors and family and even the rebuke and finally the repulse of his wife for what in the last act turns out to have been the wishes of his friend and President of the United States, Abraham Lincoln.

Clinton M. Hale, as Joey Shanks, the son of The Copperhead, appeared only in the first act, but he did a splendid piece of work, but perhaps the character that stood out most prominently aside from that of the Copperhead, was "Grandma Perley," acted by Mrs. George C. Tewksbury. Many are familiar with Mrs. Tewksbury's work, but it was never more enjoyed than at this time. She never was out of her character, and played with a naturalness that left nothing to be desired. It was a finished piece of work. Millicent Stanger played the part of the wife of the Copperhead. Her experience in dramatic work was apparent at this time. Her voice has carrying power that makes her work especially enjoyed. The character of Elsie, the two-year-old daughter of the Shanks, was taken by Dorothy Maraspin, who captivated the audience by her dainty and winning ways. Wallace M. Powers, as Newt Gillespie, appeared in both epochs and in each gave a satisfactory piece of acting, as did Arnold E. Thiesfeldt as Captain Hardy, and M. J. Powers as Newt Gillespie. Rufus Stickney as Lem Tolland, the friend of The Copperhead, although having a small part, made the most of it. His make-up was especially good in the second epoch as was that of Mr. Thiesfeldt, and Mr. Powers. John O. Mathews, as Sam Carter, was cast for a minor part, as were Eleanor Homer, Barbara Winn and Harold A. Yeames, but each were essential to the play and assisted in carrying to conclusion with much acceptance, the first epoch.

In the second epoch, Dorothy Ryder made her first appearance before an Arlington audience, giving a sweet portrayal of the granddaughter of Milt Shanks, Stanwood H. Cook playing opposite her as Philip Manning, the lover. This epoch had several tense moments, where the naturalness of the actors made the scene so realistic that many in the audience were moved to tears. Mr. Cook played his role with much discernment, and with the ease of an old stager, while Mrs. William Forbes as the mother of Philip Manning, carried her part with dignity and grace. Richard J. Favorite, as the Dr. Randall, made a favorable impression in this, his first appearance before an Arlington audience.

The play called for some spectacular stage effects, especially in the first scene, in the first act, which was laid in the dooryard of Milton Shanks' home. One was when the men who had responded to the call to the colors marched by with the young son of Shanks in the front ranks and again when the news came of the death of the son. This latter was in the second act two years later, but all the scenes were effectively staged and in keeping with the period of the play which related some of the stirring events between 1861 and 63, and laid in southern Illinois.

The scene which called for the most taxing work of the cast was in the last act, which was enacted in the living room of Shanks' home and they did not disappoint their audience, but rather left them feeling as if they had lived again in those stirring times portrayed in "The Copperhead."

On Friday night members of Post 34, G. A. R., were the guests of the Friends of the Drama, occupying the front seats. At this performance the ladies in the cast as well as the coach, received lovely flowers. The staff having the presentation in charge, not including, however, Mrs. Roscoe R. Perry, who is the president of this splendid organization, which is giving those who desire an opportunity to express their dramatic feeling, follow:

Business Manager, Wallace M. Powers; Stage Manager, Joseph P. McGinn; Property Manager, Mrs. O. O. H. Picher; Tickets, Mrs. Fayette A. Tibbitts; Make-up, Mrs. Mary E. Lewis; Property Man, Howard H. Dawes; Electrician, Herbert T. Sanger; The ushers were Mrs. Curtis H. Waterman, head usher, assisted by Mrs. John W. Loud.

Mrs. Oscar A. Schnitzer, Mrs. Philip H. Burt, Mrs. Walter J. Vaughn, Miss Pauline Thiesfeldt, Mrs. Nelson Chase, Miss Elfrida Callister, Mrs. George W. Yae, Miss Christine Young, Mrs. Stella Mark Cushing, Miss Marion Mead, Mrs. Olive B. Hanna, Miss Charlotte Butler, Mrs. George B. Ordley, Mrs. Clinton M. Hale, Mrs. Harold B. Turner, Miss M. Gertrude Whitton, Mrs. Lewis Stickney, John W. Loud, Philip H. Burt, Samuel T. Cushing and Herbert T. Sanger.

ARLINGTON BOY DROWNEDCompanion Rescued by Passing Autoist.

Frank H. Bromade, aged eight years, son of Mrs. William Bromade Stewart of 98 Medford street, was drowned in Lower Mystic Lake on Monday evening, while floating about on a raft with his playmate, Robert A. Mushet, Jr., aged nine years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Mushet, of 45 Sherburn street. These two, in company with James F. Lombard, Jr., of 26 Sherburn street, aged nine years, and Robert Kelley, of Medford street, aged eleven years, had gone to the lake in search of turtles. A light raft was made and as it would not hold four, the Bromade and Mushet boys started out. When about fifty feet from the shore, the boys sighted a turtle and both went to the same side of the frail raft. This caused one side to sink and throw both boys into the water. The Bromade boy sank and did not come to the surface again.

The Mushet boy caught onto the side of the raft. The cries of the boy in the water and the boys on the bank attracted the attention of Harold Tracer, son of Fire Chief Tracey of Woburn, who was passing in an automobile. He ran to the water and swam to the raft. He succeeded in getting the boy to the shore, where he worked over him until he regained consciousness. Mr. Tracey went back and tried to locate the Bromade boy, but although he went under the water several times, he was forced to give up, being chilled through by the icy water. The Mushet boy was rushed to his home and the family physician was called. This boy has recovered.

The Bromade boy was born in Arlington. He attended the Russell school and was popular with his classmates. He is survived by his mother and one sister.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, services being conducted at the home by Rev. Henry Sterling Potter, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church. The burial was in Randolph.

—A house owned by John Trost on Reed street, was practically destroyed by fire on Monday evening. The house was unoccupied. The owner had been working about the place during the afternoon, and it is thought that he might have left an oily rag laying about. The house was burning rapidly when discovered and when the department arrived was a mass of flames.

Spring WeddingsBURBIDGE—ANDREWS

Last Saturday, April 24th, at 5 o'clock, at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church of the Heights, Miss Marion G. Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Andrews of 1422 Mass. avenue, and Mr. Harold Burbidge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burbidge, of Butler avenue, East Lexington, were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Hankins. The double ring service was used.

The bride made a pretty picture in her gown of pink silk with hat to match. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Miss Helen Erikson, of 6 Bradstreet avenue, Beachmont, attended as bridesmaid. She was in light blue silk with hat to match and carried pink and white sweet peas. Mr. Leo Gould of Cambridge was best man.

The bride is a graduate of the Arlington High school, class of '24. Mr. and Mrs. Burbidge will be at home to their many friends at Somerville after May 1st.

ROBINSON—PARTRIDGE

St. James church at Arlington Heights was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday evening, April 28th, when Mildred Caroline Partridge, daughter of Mrs. Isabel C. Partridge, of 9 Claremont avenue, Arlington Heights, and the late William O. Partridge, became the wife of Mr. William Allan Robinson, son of Mrs. Annie F. Robinson, of 102 Mt. Vernon street, Dedham.

The double ring service was performed at 6:30 by Rev. Maurice F. O'Connor, witnessed by relatives and friends, the brother of the bride, Mr. William O. Partridge, giving her away. Miss Mabelle Mitchell of Medford sang, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. George Bonney, who played the wedding marches. The church was effectively decorated with palms, rambler roses and sweet peas.

The bride was gowned in white liberty satin, trimmed with Venetian point lace and pearls, the gown made with a full court train. The tulle veil was becomingly arranged on the coiffeur with point lace and orange blossoms, while the bouquet was of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Partridge made an attractive picture in her beautiful toilette.

Miss Ruth Robinson, sister of the groom, was the bride's only attendant. She was in gray georgette with shoes, stockings and hat to match, and carried orchids and sweet peas. Mr. James Quirk, of Milford, was the best man. The ushers were Mr. Walter J. Murphy and Mr. Joseph F. Guenther, both of Dedham.

Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, there was no reception, but the wedding party and immediate family of the couple were served a supper at Hotel Somerset, following the ceremony, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to New York and Atlantic City. On their return they will reside at 9 Claremont avenue, Arlington Heights, in a new apartment just completed for their occupancy.

The bride is a graduate of Arlington High school, class of 1914, and Lisell seminary. The groom is a World War veteran and a graduate of Holy Cross.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

A miscellaneous shower was tendered Miss Ruth Swenson of Everett last Friday evening by the members of the Afo Ofa Club of the Blue Triangle, Boston, of which she is a former president, at the home of Miss E. M. Lantz, 12 Whittemore street. Miss Lantz and Miss Ethel M. Owens of Brookline were hostesses. A large group attended and a very pleasant evening enjoyed. The majority of the members are from out of town, although Arlington is represented by a number of young women. The decorations used were black and gold, the club colors, and were carried out in calandulas and black candles.

IN APPRECIATION

Rev. Don Ivan Patch takes this means of expressing his appreciation to his host of friends in Arlington who contributed so generously to the purse of gold presented at the reception tendered him at the Orthodox Congregational church previous to his leaving Arlington to take up his work in the First Congregational Society of Washington. Friends may be glad to know that with a portion of the money Mr. Patch purchased a Hamilton watch, which is inscribed with "From Arlington Friends." It helps to bring to his attention the kindness of the Arlington parish.

He is still interested in the Choral Club of the Heights. Last Sunday, Mrs. Smith of A-ham street and formerly of Dorchester, where she was a church organist for a number of years, substituted at the organ.
